

Teens! Make the Teen Leadership Academy your personal quest!

- Try out different leadership styles and think about how you interact with and influence other people.
 - What are the important issues to Southern Maryland teens?
 - How can teen leaders help solve them?
-

What:

Leadership skills are a vital part of everyday life. The Teen Leadership Academy is designed to teach and develop those skills in a hands-on, experiential program with workshops and visits to meet with regional leaders in their workplaces throughout Southern Maryland.

Who:

Teens from Calvert, Charles and St. Mary's counties entering grades 10, 11, 12.

Where:

College of Southern Maryland, Prince Frederick campus.

When:

June 25 – 28, 2018, 8 am – 5 pm daily

Apply:

Apply online at www.leadershipsomd.org. Go to "Programs" and select "Teen Leadership Academy." Application deadline with fee is June 1, 2018

Cost:

$225: Cost covers program tuition and supplies, daily lunch, transportation to/from CSM Prince Frederick from CSM La Plata and CSM Leonardtown, and bus transportation scheduled as part of daily programming.

Teens planted sweet potato seedlings at Serenity Farms as they learned how Farming 4 Hunger partners with the community to feed the whole person, body and soul.

Questions?

Call the Leadership Southern Maryland office at 240-725-5469 or email TLA@leadershipsomd.org.

TLA Ambassadors visited Historic St. Mary's City in 2017 to learn how forward thinking leadership shaped the settlement hundreds of years ago.

Leadership Southern Maryland (LSM) was founded in 2008 to nurture interest, regional knowledge and leadership capacities of Southern Maryland leaders while educating them on the challenges that face the region. The Teen Leadership Academy was launched in 2016.

www.leadershipsomd.org
info@leadershipsomd.org

Leadership Southern Maryland
P.O. Box 524
Leonardtown, Maryland 20650
240-725-5469

Helen Mattingly Wernecke, executive director
Patrick Murphy, president of the board of directors