SPOTLIGHT SPONSOR

The Chesapeake-Potomac Healthcare Alliance was formed in 1994 by Calvert Memorial Hospital, Civista Health, Inc., and MedStar St. Mary's Hospital with the goal of providing the very best in health care for every person in Southern Maryland. One year later, the Alliance collaborated successfully to create the Chesapeake-Potomac Home Health Agency. In 2006, they developed the Chesapeake Potomac Regional Cancer Center. The center, which has locations in Waldorf and Charlotte Hall, represents a major milestone for cancer care in the tri-county area.

Chesapeake-Potomac Home Health Care is a full-service agency that provides nursing, physical, speech and occupational therapy, medical social work and home health aides to patients recently discharged from the hospital. Its services are licensed and certified by Medicare and Medicaid. Chesapeake Potomac Regional Cancer Center provides patients with access to the highest quality in radiation therapy. The center's sophisticated technology gives doctors the ability to target and track tumors with superior precision.

BIOGRAPHIES

SPEAKERS:

KATHLEEN O. O'BRIEN, Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer, Walden Behavioral Health

Kathleen O. O'Brien, Ph.D., is CEO of Walden Behavioral Health a premier behavioral health organization serving Southern Maryland. She earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Maryland, and her doctorate in clinical psychology from LaSalle University.

Dr. O'Brien began her long association with Walden in 1973, serving as the clinical director from 1978 to 1990, when she became the executive director. Her commitment and dedication have been a driving force in the development and expansion of a multi-service behavioral health organization that is respected throughout the state and has received national recognition.

Dr. O'Brien plays a prominent role in her community and throughout the state where she is a strong advocate for quality services for children and their families. She serves on numerous boards and commissions. She is a gubernatorial appointee on the State Drug and Alcohol Council, the Opiate Overdose Council, the Health and Human Services Referral Board, and the State Victim Services Board. She serves on the Maryland Executive Council of AARP. Dr. O'Brien is the president-elect of the MD Association of Addiction Directors. (MADC)

Additional local and state boards include: Healthshare, Camp Maria Board, the Maryland Juvenile Justice Coalition, the MD Network Against Domestic Violence, and the MD Coalition Against Sexual Assault. Dr. O'Brien has also served as a member of the National Council on Accreditation, the Child Welfare League of America Steering Committee and a subcommittee of the White House Drug Policy Council.

Dr. O'Brien is the founding chairperson of the St. Mary's Family Violence Coordinating Council. She petitioned the county to establish this council after several domestic violence deaths rocked the community.

Dr. O'Brien is a Weinberg Fellow and was a member of Leadership Maryland Class of 2008. Dr. O'Brien was the 2008 recipient of the National Sunshine Peace Award, from the Buffet foundation, in recognition of her outstanding work on behalf of domestic violence victims. In 2010, she received the Social Impact Award from the Weinberg Foundation for her efforts to assist the homeless.

During the summer of 2013, Dr. O'Brien participated in the Harvard Business School Nonprofit Leadership Institute where she had the opportunity to work with nonprofit and NGO leaders from around the world.

Dr. O'Brien has been married to her husband, Paul, for 39 years and they are the proud parents of six highly accomplished young adult children.

MIKE ROBBINS, Senior Vice President, Maryland Hospital Association

Mike Robbins leads Maryland Hospital Association's (MHA) financial and regulatory advocacy efforts for Maryland's hospitals with the Health Services Cost Review Commission, including continuing efforts to modernize Maryland's all-payor Medicare waiver. He also provides support to MHA's government relations team on all financial matters during the state's legislative session. Prior to coming to MHA in 2009, Robbins served as the vice president for financial policy at the West Virginia Hospital Association (WVHA).

Robbins is a fellow of the Healthcare Financial Management Association and has received the Follmer Bronze, Reeves Silver, Muncie Gold, and Medal of Honor awards from HFMA.

Before joining the WVHA staff in 1995, Robbins spent most of his career in hospital finance. He served as the vice president/CFO at Saint Francis Hospital, a 200-bed community hospital in Charleston, West Virginia, for three years, and before that was the CFO at Fairview Hospital in Great Barrington, Massachusetts from 1987-1992; controller, at Norwood Hospital in Norwood, Massachusetts from 1985-1987; and CFO at Glover Memorial Hospital in Needham, Massachusetts from 1982-1985.

SHARON MURPHY, Director, Veterans Home Program, Charlotte Hall Veteran's Home, Maryland Department of Veterans Affairs

Sharon Murphy was born and raised in Charles County, Maryland. Murphy began her state career in July 1984 when she joined the small staff at Charlotte Hall Veterans Home as the assistant to the commandant. In the over 30 years at Charlotte Hall, she has been an integral part in the operation and expansion of the home, watching it grow from four residents and 20 staff, to the current occupancy of 417 residents and over 500 employees. Murphy's dedication to the home and its residents culminated in June, 2008, when she accepted the position of director, Veterans Home Program, serving as the contract manager for the State of Maryland Veterans Home Operations. The day-to-day operation of the home is the responsibility of the contractor, HMR of Maryland.

As director, Murphy is responsible for monitoring the operation of the facility to ensure contract compliance with federal, state, and local regulations and to provide oversight of resident care, fiscal management and support services. Murphy represents the MD Department of Veterans Affairs in contacts with federal, state, and local elected officials. She is responsible for preparing and administering the home's annual operating budget and capital improvement projects. She serves as the on-site advocate for residents and responds to inquiries by residents, family, and elected officials. Murphy is actively involved in the marketing of the home and maintains liaisons with veteran and community organizations locally and statewide to promote awareness of Charlotte Hall Veterans Home and the services it provides.

- member Tri-County Veterans Advisory Council
- member National Association of State Veterans Home
- licensed assisted living manager, State of Maryland
- certified dementia care practitioner

Significant projects completed since becoming director in 2008:

- Applied and awarded federal grant to install 100% emergency generator power for CHVH ($5.2 million)
- Procurement officer for Request for Proposal for the management services for CHVH – 7year contract ($70 million)
- Electronic medical records system implemented in 2014, facility wide
- On-site state-of-the-art pharmacy with an automatic pill dispenser

Murphy enjoys the daily contact with the veterans and is dedicated to leading Charlotte Hall Veterans Home in achieving an even higher standard of excellence for Maryland's only state veterans home.
