Dominion Cove Point LNG Grant Supports LSM

Dominion Cove Point LNG recently provided a grant of $5,000 to Leadership Southern Maryland (LSM) to support LSM's executive leadership program. Shown at the presentation ceremony on August 10 on site at Dominion Cove Point LNG is John Felicitas (LSM'13 and current president, LSM Board of Directors); Helen Mattingly Wernecke (LSM executive director), and Mike Frederick (LSM'11 and vice president of operations, Dominion Cove Point LNG). LSM's "Energy & Environment" class enjoyed an in-depth tour of the facility last October. LSM is grateful to Linda Vassallo (LMD '07 and LSM past president), who as director of Calvert County Economic Development, who helped introduce LSM to Dominion Cove Point LNG.

LSM ALUMS FARM 4 HUNGER

On Saturday, August 6, LSM alumni and their families spent the morning at Serenity Farm in Benedict, Maryland, hosted by Farming4Hunger's founder, Bernie Fowler, Jr. and his wife, Rose. LSM volunteers worked alongside inmates on work release through Farming4Hunger to harvest nearly 900 pounds of tomatoes. Later, LSM toured the farm's operations and learned about the successes of its inmate work release program, now being studied as a model for the state of Maryland. (Photo courtesy Bernie Fowler, Jr.)
